

Assistance to Dissidents in Exile of Overseas

The Cathay Glory Association provides assistance to Dissidents such as Chinese democratic activists in exile of overseas who are in distress and need assistance while in overseas, whether in Hong Kong or elsewhere.

Assistance to Dissidents in Exile Emergency Contacts

You may consider contact us if you need assistance while in distress. Our telephone number and email are follows:

E-mail: [sos[®]
cathayglory.org](mailto:sos@cathayglory.org)

Telephone/Fax:
U.S./Canada: +1-202-618-0160
Hong Kong: +852 3957 1999

Assistance to Dissidents in Exile of Overseas

Dissidents who have met accidents or are in distress may request assistance from the Cathay Glory Association. Our assistance are rendered by our subdivision or other coordinate and affiliate organizations, includes providing informations on international travel safety, assisting in contacting local democratic organizations or parties, employing lawyers and translators, etc.

Assistance that can be Provided by Cathay Glory Association

If you are a Dissident in need of assistance while in exile, the Cathay Glory Association can:

- Introduce the local subdivisions of Chinese democratic organizations or parties.
- Assist you in contacting the local human rights organizations.
- Give necessary security advises.
- Issue a letter of introduction while needed.
- Recommend lawyers, translators or doctors to assists you in legal proceedings or in seeking medical treatment.
- Give essential advices about visa and asylum.
- Translate a small amount of important documents, such as proof of identity.
- Other assistance within our capabilities while needed.

Assistance that cannot be Provided by Cathay Glory Association

- Intervene in the judicial or administrative acts of the host country.
- Arbitrate or settle economic, labor and other civil disputes between you and others.
- Pay for your lawyer's fees, translator's costs, hotel, medical and travel (air/sea/land travel tickets) expenses, or any other expenses.
- Institute legal proceedings for you.
- A large number of translation work.
- Any assistance, except introduce the local subdivision of Falun Gong, as your only circumstance are practicing Falun Gong.

Points to Remember

As a non-governmental organization, our assistance may be very limited. When seeking assistances, please pay attention to the following points:

- The scope of our assistance are limited by the countries or regions.
- All assistances are free of charge.
- In general, our assistance are not in real time and may delay substantially. If you are seeking

